Dear Mr Severson,

I am writing to express my genuine enthusiasm for the Restaurant Manager position at Kornell Restaurant. As a dedicated and accomplished professional, I bring a unique blend of skills and experiences gained through my role as a stay-at-home mom, coupled with a robust background as a restaurant manager before my career pause.

In my previous position as a restaurant manager, I honed my leadership, organizational, and customer service skills to ensure the seamless operation of the establishment. I successfully led a team, managed daily operations, and upheld the highest standards of service and hospitality. These experiences have instilled in me a strong work ethic, a passion for delivering exceptional customer experiences, and the ability to thrive in a fast-paced, dynamic environment – qualities that I believe are crucial for success in the restaurant industry.

During my time as a stay-at-home mom, I further developed and refined skills that are directly transferable to restaurant management. Effective communication, multitasking, and problem-solving became integral to managing my household, demonstrating my ability to remain composed and adaptable in high-pressure situations. Budgeting and financial management skills were strengthened through overseeing family finances and ensuring judicious use of resources.

I am particularly excited about the prospect of rejoining the restaurant industry. I am confident that my skills and experiences make me a strong candidate for the Restaurant Manager position at Kornell Restaurant.

Thank you for considering my application. I am enthusiastic about the prospect of contributing to the success of Kornell Restaurant, and I am eager to discuss further how my background can be an asset to your team.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth J. Hall
