

HOT

HANNAH TAYLOR

Autism Behavior Technician

(386) 485-3646

hannah.taylor@gmail.com

Orlando, FL, United States

Education

University of Florida

2015 - 2019

United States, Gainesville, FL

Behavior Analyst Certification Board

Certified: June 2020

Skills

Expertise in ABA therapy and behavioral intervention strategies

Proficient in data collection, analysis, and reporting

Strong communication and interpersonal skills with clients and families

Crisis intervention and de-escalation techniques

Knowledge of evidence-based practices in autism treatment

Professional summary

Compassionate and skilled Behavior Technician with 3 years of experience working with children on the autism spectrum. Expertise in implementing individualized therapy programs, providing data-driven results, and promoting social and behavioral improvements.

Experience

ABC Autism Therapy

June 2023 - Now

United States, Orlando, FL

Autism Behavior Technician

- Implement individualized ABA therapy plans to improve communication, social skills, and behavior in children with autism.
- Collect and analyze behavioral data, track client progress, and adjust treatment plans under the guidance of a BCBA.
- Engage children in one-on-one therapy sessions, focusing on reducing problem behaviors.
- Collaborate with parents and families to ensure consistency in the application of therapeutic techniques at home and in the community.

Sunshine Behavioral Health

January 2020 - May 2021

United States, Orlando, FL

Behavior Technician Intern

- Assisted in delivering therapy under the supervision of a BCBA.
- Conducted assessments and helped implement strategies to address target behaviors in clients with autism.
- Supported behavioral skill-building, including socialization and self-regulation strategies.