COVER LETTER

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the position of Teacher transitioning to Sales Manager at Coconut's. With over 5 years of experience in teaching and a strong passion for sales, I am confident that I possess the necessary skills and qualifications to excel in this role.

As a teacher, I have honed my communication, leadership, and organizational skills. These skills have allowed me to effectively manage a classroom of diverse students, create engaging lesson plans, and maintain strong relationships with parents and colleagues. I believe these skills will be beneficial in managing a team of sales professionals and building strong relationships with clients.

In addition to my teaching experience, I have always had a passion for sales. During my free time, I have taken on freelance sales projects where I have successfully closed deals and built long-term relationships with clients. My natural ability to connect with people, persuasive communication skills, and determination have been key factors in my success in sales.

Moreover, my best qualities include being highly motivated, adaptable, and results-driven. I am constantly seeking opportunities for growth and improvement, both personally and professionally. My experience as a teacher has taught me the importance of patience, empathy, and resilience - qualities that are essential in any sales role.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how I can contribute to the success of your company further.

Sincerely,

Nikki Burke
