

Emily Thompson

Sterile Processing Technician

 (555) 654-3210

 emily.thompson@email.com

 Austin, TX

Professional summary

Motivated and detail-oriented individual seeking a position as a Sterile Processing Technician. Recently certified in sterile processing techniques with a strong passion for patient safety and maintaining a sterile environment. Ready to apply my knowledge of infection control, sterilization methods, and equipment handling to contribute to a healthcare team.

Experience

Sterile Processing Technician Intern June 2024 - August 2024

Ascension Seton Medical Center, Austin, TX

- Assisted in cleaning, sterilizing, and preparing surgical instruments for use in medical procedures.
- Gained hands-on experience with autoclaves and other sterilization equipment.
- Ensured the proper storage and organization of sterilized instruments in compliance with hospital policies.
- Assisted senior technicians with inventory management and stock rotation.

Education

Sterile Processing Technician Certification (CRCST) of Austin Community College – Austin, TX

Certification Achieved: May 2025

Healthcare Volunteer

Austin Medical Center – Austin, TX January 2023 - May 2024

Healthcare Volunteer

- Assisted in patient transportation and room preparation in a hospital setting.
- Maintained cleanliness and ensured infection control protocols were followed in patient care areas.
- Collaborated with hospital staff to ensure a positive environment for patients and families.

Skills

Sterilization procedures (autoclave, chemical, heat)

Expert

Infection control protocols

Expert

Medical terminology

Expert

Equipment handling and maintenance

Expert

Time management and attention to detail

Expert

Teamwork and communication

Expert