

MARK THOMPSON

Assembly Line Worker

(555) 321-6548

mark.thompson@gmail.com

United States, Houston, TX

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dedicated Assembly Line Worker with experience in high-speed production environments. Proficient in assembling, testing, and packaging electronic products while adhering to strict quality standards and safety protocols.

EDUCATION

Certificate in Electrical Engineering Technology

Houston Community College / Graduated:
May 2016

Certifications

- Certified IPC Specialist (CIS), August 2018

2014 - 2016

Extracurricular Activities

Robotics Club Member / Houston University

- Participated in building and programming robots for regional robotics competitions, securing first place in two consecutive years.
- Worked closely with a team to design, prototype, and test various robotic systems, improving problem-solving and critical thinking skills.

SKILLS

- | | |
|---|--------|
| • Assembly and testing of electronic products | Expert |
| • Soldering and circuit board assembly | Expert |
| • Machine operation and maintenance | Expert |
| • Quality assurance and defect detection | Expert |
| • Team collaboration and communication | Expert |
| • Troubleshooting and problem-solving | Expert |

EXPERIENCE

2020 - Now

Assembly Line Worker Dell Technologies / Houston, TX

- Test computer hardware components, ensuring products meet all quality control standards.
- Operate and maintain assembly line machinery, including screwdrivers, drills, and soldering irons.
- Work in collaboration with team members to meet daily production targets.
- Ensure the assembly area remains organized and clean, adhering to safety regulations and minimizing downtime.

2016 - 2020

Assembly Line Technician Apple Inc. / Houston, TX

- Assembled and tested various components for smartphones, ensuring high quality and precision.
- Assisted in training new employees on proper assembly line procedures and product specifications.
- Troubleshoot assembly line issues, minimizing downtime and ensuring continuous production flow.

VOLUNTEERING

2017 - Now

Volunteer Technician Houston Community Center

- Assist with setting up and maintaining electronic equipment for community events, ensuring smooth operations.
- Provide hands-on technical support for workshops on basic electronics for local high school students.