

(312) 555-6789

sarah.johnson@gmail.com

United States, Chicago, IL

Sarah Johnson

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology, University of Chicago, United States, May 2019

Bachelor of Arts in Communication Sciences and Disorders, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, United States, May 2017

Certifications

- Basic Life Support (BLS), American Heart Association, March 2022
- Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech-Language Pathology, ASHA, June 2020

SKILLS

Pediatric speech and language therapy	Expert
Language development assessments	Expert
Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) interventions	Expert
Parent and family education	Expert
Augmentative and Alternative Communication systems	Expert
Play-based therapy techniques	Expert
Strong interpersonal communication skills	Expert

Pediatric Speech Therapist

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Compassionate Pediatric Speech Therapist with experience providing therapy to children with speech and language disorders. Skilled in developing individualized treatment plans to promote language development and communication skills.

EXPERIENCE

Pediatric Speech Therapist, Chicago Children's Hospital

June 2019 - Now

- Conduct speech and language assessments for children with communication delays and disorders.
- Develop and implement individualized treatment plans for children ages 2-12.
- Provide family education to support speech therapy goals at home.
- Track patient progress and adjust therapy plans accordingly.

Speech Therapy Intern, Sunshine Pediatric Therapy Center, Chicago, IL

May 2018 - June 2019

- Supported speech therapists in conducting language assessments and evaluations.
- Provided one-on-one and group therapy sessions to children with speech and language needs.
- Maintained detailed records of patient progress and communicated updates with parents and caregivers.