

DANIEL SIMMONS

Intravenous (IV) Pharmacy Technician

 (713) 555-2847

 daniel.simmons@email.com

 United States, Houston, TX

Professional summary

Experienced and detail-oriented IV Pharmacy Technician with experience in sterile compounding and aseptic technique within hospital and infusion center settings. Proven ability to prepare complex intravenous admixtures, maintain cleanroom standards, and support pharmacists in delivering safe and accurate parenteral medications.

Experience

June 2019 - Now

IV Pharmacy Technician

Houston Methodist Hospital –
Sterile Compounding Division

- Prepare IV admixtures, including TPNs, chemotherapy, and antibiotics, following aseptic techniques under USP <797> guidelines.
- Maintain cleanroom and anteroom conditions through rigorous environmental monitoring and cleaning protocols.
- Operate laminar airflow hoods and biological safety cabinets to ensure sterile medication preparation.

May 2016 - May 2019

Pharmacy Technician – IV Room

Baylor St. Luke's Medical Center

- Supported inpatient pharmacy services by preparing IV medications for medical, surgical, and intensive care units.
- Handled hazardous drug compounding under USP <800> using CSTD systems for oncology patients.
- Assisted in inventory control for IV supplies and pharmaceutical products, minimizing waste and shortages.

June 2015 - April 2016

Pharmacy Technician Intern

Option Care Health, The Woodlands, TX

- Gained hands-on training in IV admixture preparation and sterile product packaging for home infusion patients.
- Shadowed senior technicians and pharmacists in preparation of elastomeric pumps and infusion bags.

Education

Pharmacy Technician Certificate
Program, San Jacinto College,
Graduated: May 2015

Certifications

- USP Compliance Training —
Renewed: 2024
- OSHA Bloodborne Pathogens &
Safety Certification — Updated:
2024
- Sterile Products Certification —
Issued: 2016

Skills

Aseptic Technique &
Sterile Compounding ★★★★★

Hazardous Drug
Handling (HD) ★★★★★

Total Parenteral Nutrition
(TPN) Prep ★★★★★

Chemo & Antibiotic IV
Admixtures ★★★★★

Laminar Airflow Hood
Operation ★★★★★